One Believer

John Campbell

You were both believers from the time you met
But time has a way of making believers forget
Now words are worthless and tears can't bring you 'round
Nothing is sacred when it finally comes down toOne believer still hanging on
One who won't leave the one who's already gone
One who's forever, one who's over and done
Ain't nothing lonelier than one believerWhen someone stops trying love can't be saved
Where there's no will to leave me, there ain't no way
Take it from someone who knows just how you feel
You can't get down the road with only one wheelOne believer still hanging on
One who won't leave the one who's already gone
One who's forever, one who's over and done
Ain't nothing lonelier than one believerOne believer
(Still hanging on)
One believer
Oh, one believer
(Still hanging on)One believer
Ooo, one believer
(Still hanging on)
One believer [unverified]

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/