

Sad but True

Rooney

you never seem to know
what you're looking for
you never could let go
put it down and walk out
of that candy store now you're here looking through shattered glass watching the days as they pass suddenly out of the blue
it all makes sense
its so sad but true all the reds and blues all the happy faces falling down again is that what you see a little touch of it now and then now you're nowhere
its so sad but true you never seem to know
its so sad but true sad but true
