Holy Man

One Minute Silence

I could be wrong here
I could be the Son of God
I could be right
Selling you a little life
Why you and not me?
But you wouldn't see me
You wouldn't hear meIs that supposed to mean something?
Am I supposed to feel something?
Tell me Holy Man
Am I to believe that you hold the key?
My way wrong and yours right?I could be wrong here
You could be right
Please forgive me I have sinned -
But I'll never fear thee
Not on your life
But that's how you want me
Tell me Holy Man
Why you and not me?Is that supposed to mean something?
Am I supposed to feel something?
Am I to believe that you hold the key?
My way wrong and yours right?
You want it?You need it?
You keep it
You love it?You want it?
You love it?
You need it?
You keep itYou want me to fear you, revere you, never question your lies
You want me to bow down, lie down, accept it and die
Say what, say what, say what, say what, say why
Say what, say what, say what, say what, say why
