Clued Up

Little Mix

Hey, yeah, no oh oh, yeah
Mmm, listenI used to dress like everybody else
I wanted to just blend in
They told me no, keep my dreams on the low
Told me I'd never win, yeah
I love to be different
Guard up to opinions then let 'em in
Tear me down, want to see me drown
Like being happy is such a sin, uh huhAnd now I'm older, it's never over
It don't stop affecting me, the world keeps testing me
I'm getting on track with every knock back
On a bad day, I just gotta stay, stay, stay, stayI stay clued up and I'm ready
To love the good and live the bad
Clued up and now I get it
Just make the best of what you have
'Cause sometimes it's beauty, sometimes it's pain
Sometimes it's sunshine, and sometimes it's rain
I'm clued up and now I get it
Just make the best of what you have, woah ho ho, woah ho ho, woah ho ho, woah
Clued up and now I get it
Just make the best of what you haveInvisible, I feel like I'm forgotten
Do you even notice me, yeah?
Work myself up, let the nerves take over
How I feel isn't what you see
I need control, don't know how to let it go
I need to learn to let it be
Gotta remember nothing lasts forever
So I'm just happy being me, oh ohAnd when I'm older, it's never over
It don't stop affecting me, the world keeps testing me
I'm staying on track with every knock back
On a bad day, I just gotta stay, stay, stay, stayI stay clued up and I'm ready
To love the good and live the bad
Clued up and now I get it
Just make the best of what you have
'Cause sometimes it's beauty, sometimes it's pain
Sometimes it's sunshine, and sometimes it's rain
I'm clued up and now I get it
Just make the best of what you have woah ho ho, woah ho ho, woah ho ho, woah
Clued up and now I get it

Just make the best of what you haveI will never run, never run from a lesson
I will never hide, never hide from the present
All the ups and downs, all the heres and the nows
Everything I face, no, it's never forgotten
'Cause every single day is a chance I can blossom
(All the ups and downs, yeah I'm living right now, hey)
I'm living right now, yeah, one, two, threeI'm clued up and I'm ready
To love the good and live the bad
Clued up and now I get it
Just make the best of what you have
'Cause sometimes it's beauty, sometimes it's pain
Sometimes it's sunshine, and sometimes it's rain
I'm clued up and now I'm ready
Just make the best of what you have woah ho ho, woah ho ho, woah ho ho, woah
Clued up and now I get it
Just make the best of what you haveBeauty, but sometimes it's pain
Sometimes it's sunshine, sometimes it's rain
