

He's Fine

The Secret Sisters

Davey White
Where is he tonight?
He's sleeping with her in a Tennessee town and he's fine
I think I lost my mind
And my wasted time
I'm dreaming alone in a hotel bed that he's mine Bought a gown to match his name
Kept my virtue just the same
So I could offer to my love
A bride he could be proud of
I was sure I held his heart
'Til a Louisiana girl tore us apart
Watched him as he turned away
Into her arms, where he stayed
Davey White
Where is he tonight?
He's sleeping with her in a Tennessee town and he's fine
I think I lost my mind
And my wasted time
I'm dreaming alone in a hotel bed that he's mine Once my tears had all run out
I learned how to live without
Pieces left behind in tow
I took to the hard road
Strangers know the songs I write
They come to hear me sing at night
They don't know I've paid the cost
They don't know what I lost
Davey White
Where is he tonight?
He's sleeping with her in a Tennessee town and he's fine
I think I lost my mind
And my wasted time
I'm dreaming alone in a hotel bed that he's mine 'Til all the miles erase my pain
'Til all the hurt is gone again
Searching for the next mistake
Who never ever would replace Davey White
Where is he tonight?
He's sleeping with her in a Tennessee town and he's fine
I think I lost my mind
And my wasted time

I'm dreaming alone in a hotel bed that he's mine
I'm dreaming alone in a hotel bed that he's mine
But he's sleeping with her in a Tennessee town and he's fine
Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnllyrics.com/>