

My Intuition

Sarah Connor

I'm in the club with my girlie's just hangin' loose
I see you comin' up early lookin' so cute
We start to rock on the dance floor to get it on
But when it comes to a bit more all your charm's gone
My intuition keeps me from wishing
You could be Mr. Right
My intuition tells me, don't miss him
Love would be a waste of time
Self-confidence is remaining I must be wrong
You say the best entertainment is when you're gone, gone
You say you'd love me forever it's plain to see
But I believe you can never satisfy me
My intuition keeps me from wishing
You could be Mr. Right
My intuition tells me, don't miss him
Love would be a waste of time
My intuition keeps me from wishing
You could be Mr. Right
My intuition tells me, don't miss him
Love would be a waste of time
I can't give you what you want and
This rejection's your protection
I know, I know, I know, I know
You want, you want, you want a baby
I know, I know, I know, I know
You want, you want, you want me
I know, I know, I know, I know
You want, you want, you want a baby
I know, I know, I know, I know
You want, you want, you want me
My intuition keeps me from wishing
You could be Mr. Right
My intuition tells me, don't miss him
Love would be a waste of time
My intuition keeps me from wishing
You could be Mr. Right
My intuition tells me, don't miss him
Love would be a waste of time
My intuition keeps me from wishing

Oh yeah you could be Mr. Right, no
