

Regression-Progression

Brutal Truth

Destroy our future
Each breath last
Now the final dye is cast From within destroy and ruin
Guaranteed to seal our doom
The truth we choose to never face
Annihilate the human race Human error
Seals fate
Destroyed future
In dread we wait Remaining ever mute and bound
The truth we seek is never found
Becoming closer every day
Destruction, the price we pay
