

Thorn

Mudhoney

I've got a thorn in my side
About the size of your eye
I feel it sticking through
I feel it sticking through You're all watching for me
With such intensity
It doesn't matter what I do
It doesn't matter what I do Take your eyes off me
Maybe then you'll see
The world was sticking at you
The world was watching you You're just a thorn in my side
Wasting effort, wasting time
It doesn't matter what I do
It doesn't matter what I do
It doesn't matter what I do
Your world is dying too
