

Stand In Your Line

Dornik

I joke and call you my girl, then you smile and you laugh and call me your Boyfriend, oh if this were true
I'll be just more than your man, but your shield and your armour girl
And your best friend Cause I wanna give you everything
Oh stay
I'm gonna keep you baby
If you got something you need from me
I'm yours
I'm waiting on you baby I'll stand in your line, line, your line, your line
Waiting for you babe
I'll stand in your line, line, your line, your line
Waiting for you baby
If only you knew how I felt
(When you tell me 'bout them other guys that's trying get up in-between your thighs)
See I need you all to myself, yes I do girl
(Oh girl you gimme butterflies, every time I look into your eyes) Cause I wanna give you everything
Oh stay
I'm gonna keep you baby
If you got something you need from me
I'm yours
I'm waiting on you baby I'll stand in your line, line, your line, your line
Waiting for you babe
I'll stand in your line, line, your line, your line
Waiting for you baby
Never gonna let you down
Loved you since you first came around
Never felt like this before
I'll be loving you forever more
Ain't nobody gonna hurt you now
Waiting on your love but it's worth it now
Think it's time we settled the score
I want you and nothing more
Never gonna let you down
Loved you since you first came around
Never felt like this before
I'll be loving you forever more
Ain't nobody gonna hurt you now
Waiting on your love but it's worth it now
Think it's time we settled the score

I want you and nothing more I'll stand in your line, line, your line, your line

Waiting for you babe

I'll stand in your line, line, your line, your line

Waiting for you baby

I'll stand in your line, line, your line, your line

Waiting for you babe

I'll stand in your line, line, your line, your line

Waiting for you baby
