Unspeakable

NME

Somethin in the air baby something in you stare and I'm feeling butterflies around me baby I, I just get weak Something's saying no but my heart is letting go and I'm giving into my subliminal and that's where this gets deep now you clouded my senses but I don't know you yet no no

Don't don't say a word you might just curse a good thing of what I'm thinking can't be hurt it's unspeakable the way I feel your vibe it's just so natural and instinctual it's unspeakable the way I need you Your livin in my mind so don't feed me any lines when I make my own reality don't wanna know you game Cause anything you say will be getting in the way of a world full of possibility don't wake me from my dreams Cause I'm imaging you and me and all the things we could be ohh ohh don't don't say a word you might just curse a good thing of what I'm thinking can't be hurt it's unspeakable the way I feel you vibes

it's just so natural and instinctual it's unspeakable the way I need you Behind your eyes I recognize somethin else right down my spine like something I ever felt you might be my destiny fantasy everything I need and boy you could be there for me Oh don't don't say a word

of what I'm thinking can't be hurt it's unspeakable the way I feel your vibes it's just so natural and instinctual it's unspeakable the way I need you the way I need you don't say a word you might just curse a good thing of what I'm thinking (a very good thing) can't be hurt it's unspeakable (a very good thing)
the way I feel your vibes
it's just so natural and instinctual it's unspeakable the way I need you Don't say a word and
don't say a word...
