Superfast (1998 Version)

Dynamite Hack

dear kate, even though we've never met, I could tell from the outset that you are not like all the other ones and they know it and I know it and they know it and I know it too I've known it ever since you first looked out at me from the magazineThe more of your face we see the thicker the mystery girl you said it soEven if you run even if you turn even if you're stripped and burned Even if you're haul even if you're ass even if you're superfast
Even if you're in Spain even if your at arms
Even if you bit the rest and won and won and won and won and bit the rest and wonDear Kate, through the years you have matured but you'll always look the same to me as you did on the cover of The Face they all say you're flat, they all say your face looks like Eric Stoltz in "Mask" but I disagree maybe they will see all the pretty things I seeFrom a bruised angel to a sultry siren Kate strikes a poseEven if you run even if you turn even if you're stripped and burned
Even if you're haul even if you're ass
even if you're superfast
Even if you're in Spain
even if your at arms
Even if you bit the rest and won
and won and won and won and bit the rest and wonThey all point their fingers at your thread like figure They all blame you for making all the girls disfigured But I don't think so-ooh-oh!!!!!!From a bruised angel to a sultry siren Kate strikes a poseEven if you set my house on fire

(even if you set my heart on fire) Even if you set my lawn ablaze (even you set my heart a-blaze) Even if you steal my stud dog Henry (I want to see ya, I want to see if)
And make all of your bitches feel the same (you think you'd ever feel the same.)
