

Blade

Tyler The Creator, Earl Sweatshirt

From the flames of a burned down heart
Ripped off and torn apart
Life to ashes and life to death
I twist the blade and take your breath
In the twist of blade I feel
The passion to hate arising
Cruellest mind, my thoughts are running through
Deepest fear, no light shines on you
Son of no one and breeder of fear
I'm coming to take you away
Shadow hearted, me, wild one
Bringer of pain and darkest despair
I'm heading towards the day
That your last wish is to be done
Through my blade I live my life
Your salvation in flash of my knife
Til the last drop I make you crawl
You're good as dead so fear no more
In the twist of blade I feel
The passion to hate arising
Cruellest mind, my thoughts are running through
Deepest fear, no light shines on you
Son of no one and breeder of fear
I'm coming to take you away
Shadow hearted, me, wild one
Bringer of pain and darkest despair
I'm heading towards the day
That your last wish is to be done
Cruellest mind, my thoughts are running through
Deepest fear, no light shines on you
Son of no one and breeder of fear
I'm coming to take you away
Shadow hearted, me, wild one
Bringer of pain and darkest despair
I'm heading towards the day
That your last wish is to be done
