

Damned to Hell

John Butler Trio

Where you run is where you hide
Better hope you're hiding well
'Cause when the angel catches you
You know you're damned to Hell Damned to Hell is what you are
Can you hear the Church Bells toll?
And all the money in the world
Can't save your sorry soul And when you reach the Pearly Gates
And Peter reads your tale
He'll send you back from whence you came Back to your living Hell Damned to Hell is what you are
Can you hear the Church Bells toll?
And all the money you have made
Can't save your sorry soul And I believe there comes a time
When justice does prevail
It may not be in my lifetime
For you that's just as well Damned to Hell is what you are
Can you hear the Church Bells toll?
And all the money you have made
Can't save your sorry soul
