You Are My Rescue

Royal Tailor

The sound of silence is all that I can hear
The questions echo between my heart and my tears
Have you left me here
No shaking of earth, just trembling hands
No oceans that part, just You holding my heart
So I would come to know

In every flood, in every flame
Nothing I fear, can stand in Your way
You, You, You are my rescue
Wherever I am, whenever I fall
You lift me up, You Never let go
You, You, You are my rescue

You were faithful before, you'll be faithful again
Whether high or low, you'll walk with me till the end
I don't have to be afraid

You're never too late, You're never too far away
That you canâ€™t save me, oh Lord you save me
