

The Last Trick

Anja Garbarek

From standing to crouching, silently falling
Falling from nowhere to nowhere
Nothing between, nothing beyond
Nothing behind the stars And this is the last trick I'll do
The sound can be seen
This is the main title
Briefly shaking It's the last trick I'll do
The sound can be seen
This is the main title
Briefly shaking Remain for some time down here below
Allowing the doubt to feed upon me
And even the ones who've never been
Are climbing the wall up ahead I get up, start crawling into the same
Over and over and over again
Smelling the plastic, smelling the spit
And smelling my own breath This is the last trick I'll do
The sound can be seen
This is the main title
Briefly shaking It's the last trick I'll do
Sound can be seen
This is the main title
Briefly shaking The presence convincing
That most of what I've written is false
I mention this 'cause I'm talking
In the light of what's [Incomprehensible]
I get out of the sun And this is the last trick I'll do
Sound can be seen
This is the main title
Briefly shaking It's the last trick I'll do
Sound can be seen
This is the main title
Briefly shaking It's the last trick I'll do
Sound can be seen
This is the main title
Briefly shaking It's the last trick I'll do
The sound can be seen
This is the main title
Briefly shaking It's the last trick I'll do
Sound can be seen

This is the main title
Briefly shakingIt's the main title
All together now
Everybody
