

Forever Rebel

Nick Carter

I got no education
Got no communication
Don't need no one to waste my time
Don't need no face to tell me
Don't no one to sell me
Won't be convicted for your crime, alright
Everybody has to be somebody they don't wanna be
But i, wanna be, I wanna be free
Chorus
'cause I'm a little bit o'love
A little bit o' hate
A little bit of me that you can't break
You know that I will be forever rebel
'cause I'm a little bit o'soul
A little bit o' lust
A little piece of me that you can't trust
Baby, I will be forever rebel
Yo! it's like 1, 2, 3 and to the 4
Everybody's here, got the cops knocking at my door
Somebody call 911
I'm on probation but the party's just begun
I got no obligation
To fix my situation
Don't need no one to pick me up
I want the satisfaction
That comes from your reaction
I wanna feel it in my blood, oh yeah
Everybody has to be somebody that they don't wanna be

But i, wanna be, I wanna be free
Chorus
'cause I'm a little bit o'love, a little bit o' hate
A little bit of me that you can't break, baby
I will be forever rebel
'cause I'm a little wound up, a little freaked out
I need a little time to scream 'n' shout, baby
I will be forever rebel
I will be forever rebel
A little wound up, a little freaked out

I will be forever rebel
Everybody has to be somebody that they don't wanna be
But i, wanna be, I wanna be free

Chorus

'cause I'm a little bit o'love, a little bit o' hate
A little bit of me that you can't break, baby
You know that I will be forever rebel
'cause I'm a little bit o'soul, a little bit o' lust
A little piece of me that you can't trust, baby

I will be forever rebel

'cause I'm a little bit o'love, a little bit o' hate
A little bit of me that you can't break, baby
You know that I will be forever rebel
'cause I'm a little bit o'soul, a little bit o' lust
A little piece of me that you can't trust, baby

I will be forever rebel

Na na na na na....

I will be forever rebel
