Listen
Listen
ListenCold by day, cold by night
I wonder where the summer's gone
Make no mistake, no mistake
I've got to find youWell, you can tell all your friends
That you've found a way
Go, tell them all that you've come to stayJust to listen, just to listen
Just to listen to your heart
Just to listen, just to listen
Just to listen to your heartTake your chances, take your time
Let's take a slow dance out of here
Now I know, now I'm sure
I'm flying tonightWell, you can tell all your friends
That you've found a way
Go, tell them all that I'm here to stayJust to listen, just to listen
Just to listen to your heart
Just to listen, just to listen
Just to listen to your heartListenHot by day, warm by night
I wonder where the winter's gone
There's no mistake, no mistake
We feel the same wayWell, you can tell all your friends
That you've found a way
Go, tell them all that you're here to stayJust to listen, just to listen
Just to listen to your heart
Just to listen, just to listen
Just to listen to your heartJust to listen, just to listen
Just to listen to your heart
Just to listen, just to listen
Just to listen to your heartListen
