Are You Ready

Disturbed

Get up, get up
Get up, get up
Get up, get up
Get up, get up
Get up, get up
Get up, get upWell, are you ready now
For the revolution
For too long your power has been taken awayIt's been taken away
Does your heart feel heavy now
Savor the solutionTake those mental shackles off and throw them away
You've got to get them out of your mind
Don't you let their vision leave you blind
Moving steady now
It's a revelation
For so long your focus has been taken away
Now you're breaking awayThey may think they know you, but here's an education
No, they can't control you
Once you've broken away
They're done patrolling your mindWhen they're searching for you, they will find
A force they aren't ready for
(Are you ready!)They aren't ready for you to be strong
(Are you ready!)
They aren't ready for you to prove them wrong(Are your ready!)
They aren't ready for you to be turned into someone
Who cannot be preyed upon
That's enough already now
You don't want to take it
All your reservations have been taken awayThey've been taken away
So you think you're ready now
For the revolutionYeah, they can't control you
Once you've broken away
You've got to get them out of your mindWhen they stand before you they will find
A force they aren't ready for
(Are your ready!)They aren't ready for you to be strong
(Are you ready!)
They aren't ready for you to prove them wrong(Are your ready!)
They aren't ready for you to be turned into someone
Who cannot be preyed upon(Are you ready!)
You've got to get them out of your mind

When they stand before you they will findA force they aren't ready for (Are your ready!)
They aren't ready for you to be strong(Are you ready!)
They aren't ready for you to prove them wrong
(Are you ready!)They aren't ready for you to be turned into someone
Who cannot be preyed upon(Are you ready!)
They aren't ready for us to be strong(Are you ready!)
They aren't ready for us to prove them wrong (Are your ready!)Then you know your ready to be turned into people who cannot be preyed upon(Are you ready!)
(Are you ready!)
(Are you ready!)
We cannot be preyed upon
(Are you ready?)
(Are you ready?)
(Are you reeeeedy?)
