Papercuts

Vega 4

She says she loves me but she comes and goes when she pleases When the door shuts, it's like another papercut And now I'm stuck with a hand full of Band-Aids Until she comes back around like them ceiling fan blades Claims she loves me but she cuts me into pieces When I'm sewed up, here comes another papercut Now I'm stuck with a hand full of Band-Aids Until she comes back around like them ceiling fan blades We met 22 years back, fresh out the womb Now she consumes me, no room for self these days And she's so demanding, do this, do that Don't forget to take your medicine I hate it when her face is invading my head again The welcome mat reads, "Please take off your shoes" But she disregards the statement I've grown accustomed to bending my beliefs to satisfy her needs But I'm fed up with plugging cuts every time they bleed So I dip my pen in the puddle What a bloody mess it's been trying to end this struggle But I love her, she's the reason for the lesions, man I love her I start bleeding when she's leaving And every scar on my fingertip is a reminder of All the lessons learned on my missions to try to find her but I'll sit alone until she comes back home and I'll be waiting by the phone She says she loves me but she comes and goes when she pleases When the door shuts, it's like another papercut And now I'm stuck with a hand full of Band-Aids Until she comes back around like them ceiling fan blades Claims she loves me but she cuts me into pieces When I'm sewed up, here comes another papercut And I'm stuck with a hand full of Band-Aids Until she comes back around like them ceiling fan blades She don't live here no more

I heard she's staying down the street with the dead beat
That don't treat her right with two bad ass kids
Guilt and regret and I'm willing to bet
My last album that she's wishing she was kissing me
Man the nerve of this bitch, pardon my French

But it's been 10 days and I'm getting kind of light headed Maybe I'll write her a letter in a gentleman's way And send it with the hopes that she might get it I can't believe I let her run all over me But all I think about is when she's here and holding me, I love her She's the reason for the lesions, man I love her I start bleeding when she's leaving And every scar on my fingertip is a reminder of All the lessons learned, all my missions trying to find her and I can't complain, I kind of like the pain She ain't even got a name, she just lives in my brain and says She loves me but she comes and goes when she pleases When the door shuts, it's like another papercut And now I'm stuck with a hand full of Band-Aids Until she comes back around like them ceiling fan blades Claims she loves me but she cuts me into pieces When I'm sewed up, here comes another papercut Now I'm stuck with a hand full of Band-Aids Until she comes back around like them ceiling fan blades She says she loves me but, she really thinks that I'm an asshole She says she loves me but, my ears are too big She says she loves me but, I pick my nose too much She says she loves me but, she says i never really listen She says she loves me but, I take too many pills She says she loves me but, I never pay my bills She says she loves me but, I wait until the last minute She says she loves me but, I don't try hard enough
