

Praying to a New God

Wang Chung

What got into you got into me too
What came over you is coming over me
I've had enough of all the old stuff
I saw the writing on the wall on my TV It's another second coming, like it or not, yeah, oh yeah
It's another second coming, like it or not
You better start praying to a new God Start praying, praying to a new God
Start praying to a new, new God
They're saying the Devil's got a new job
Start praying to a new A lot of Babel came down the cable
Everybody can be famous for a day
From shore to shore, a big department store
Is all that's left of the American way It's another second coming, like it or not, yeah, oh yeah
Well, it's another second coming, like it or not
You better start praying to a new God Start praying, praying to a new God
Start praying to a new, new God
Start praying, what are you afraid of
Start praying to a new There's a big world
In the street outside
In their uniform of pride And they've all come
To see a star from the east
Is he man or beast? Decide Feel like I'm crucified, still I'm not satisfied
The second coming is coming anyway
I see them pray for more on every dance floor
I hear the word go out across the milky way It's another second coming, like it or not, yeah, oh yeah
It's another second coming, like it or not
You better start praying to a new God Start praying, praying to a new God
Start praying to a new, new God
Success and money's what he's made of
Start praying to a new God Start praying, praying on the airwaves
Start praying to a new, new God
Start praying, praying on the freeway
Start praying to a new God Start praying, praying at the back door
Start praying to a new, new God
Start praying, praying on the dance floor
Start praying to a new God Start praying, praying to a new God
Start swaying to a new, new God
Start praying, praying to a new God
Start swaying to a new God Start praying, praying to a new God
Start praying

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlyrics.com/>