Lost Innocence

Chiaki Ishikawa

There is something in her soul.
It is pain,I know.
Why is she so sad?
What is the secret
of her deep sorrow?Her innocence is lost.
Somebody took it away
from her by force.
It's so hard to find
the sense of life.
It's so hard to find
the sense of life.There is something in her eyes.
She was crying every night.
There was someone at the door...
Tell me the truth,tell me more.Her innocence is lost.
Somebody took it away
from her by force.
It's so hard to find
the sense of life.
Her innocence is lost.
She never will be as she once was.
In her eyes there will be fear,
that will never disappear.There is something on her mind.
My little girl leave the past behind.
His soul will burn in hell,
this will put an end to your pains.
There is something on her mind
My little girl leave the past behind.
His soul will burn in hell,
this will put an end to your pains.
