

Endless Summer (feat. Youngblood Hawke)

Miracle

We are setting for the endless summer
'Cause even when it's gone, we see the colorFeels like it was only yesterday
When we didn't had bills to pay
And we couldn't even guessed the day
Have a little sense to blow the stress away
Warm breeze in the palm trees
And I could feel your heat on me
Remember people used to want me
But I was too dark for sun screen
And I'm on other beach from here
Sunshine, can you take me there?
Sunshine, can you take me where
The Sun is always shinning and the sky is clear, (yeah)
Every year get brighter, temperature a little higher
Yeah, you can burn like lighters
And have my heart on fireWe are setting for the endless summer
'Cause even when it's gone, we see the colorFeels like it was only yesterday,
When we were having the best of days
Woke up feeling blessed today
The sun's out for the best of today
With the message all clear,
Hoping you could chill all year
But your five fly doesn't run the whole world
Hoping you still can hear
Some reason some reason you're going with the season
In winter I'm freezing
There's no air, no breathing
Yeah, every year get brighter, temperature a little higher
Yeah, you can burn like lighters
And have my heart on fire, yeahWe are setting for the endless summer
'Cause even when it's gone, we see the colorIt was only yesterday
When I had you next to me
The air never tasted so sweet
Cold drinks more beats, that's the recipe!
Now you're getting so much brighter
Uhm, temperature a lot higher
Uhm, I fell in love with summer
Yeah, she had my heart on fire.Feel the summer, hope it last forever now
Forever now!

If we can find the piece inside, we'll settle down
Settle down!
Hey! Hey! Hey! Hey!
Hey! Hey! Hey! We are setting for the endless summer
'Cause even when it's gone, we see the color
Hey!
Hey!
Hey!
