

Land of the Severed Meatus

Cattle Decapitation

Enter the count
In all his grimoire testimony
Generations of genocide
Severed sex glands to his delightMeatuses litter the ground
Every step, hundreds of genitals
Placed here for the kingdom of sodomy
Fanfare of depraved in despairBlinding stench of carnage
Dismembered, discarded
Kill, hate
DecreaseIn the perineum and out the mouth
Quartered by wooden spikes
Absence of genitalia
Hidden by disgorged abdomen
Entrails spill upon the land and then
Swept aside to my delightEnter the tyrant
With all his carnal necrophilia
Generations of genocide
Severed sex glands to his delight
Meatuses under your feet
Placed here for the kingdom of sodomyA cornucopia of throbbing gutshed
The sand is blood red
And stained with disease
Every appendage is pinned and held high
A testament to humanityCannot you just die?
Everything you know
Everything you love
Must be destroyed
You die annihilatedIslets and divided sectors
For every body part
Standing in fields of disease
Praying on bended knees
That you might surviveAs you've lost your arms
As they've tossed your legs
The hounds now eat the carnage
A fleshy turf now thrives
You've died of your wounds
Earthen visceral womb
Geography, a tombEnter the Christian
So blind in your demise

Impossible to run
With spikes through your thighs
Meatuses litter the street
Placed here for the kingdom of sodomy
