

Sorry, You're Not a Winner

Enter Shikari

Scratch card glory
Waist low pleasure
Black eyes, nose bleed
Don't look back now
My white abode do you remember?
But it's such a thrill just to find out Sorry you're not a winner
With the air so cold and a mind so bitter
What have you got to loose
But false intentions and a life so pretentious? Scratch card glory
Waist low pleasure
Black eyes, nose bleed
Don't look back now
My white abode do you remember?
But it's such a thrill just to find out Sorry you're not a winner
With the air so cold and a mind so bitter
What have you got to lose
But false intentions and a life so pretentious? Scratch card glory, waist low pleasure
Black eyes nose bleeds, don't look back now
My white abode, do you remember?
I sweat I ache Sorry you're not a winner
With the air so cold and a mind so bitter
What have you got to loose
But false intentions and a life so pretentious? What?-What?-What?
Goodbye, Your world, is.
