Why Not Tonight

Neal McCoy

Girl, you say that you love me
There's no doubt I love you
And we're getting closer
To a love that's so trueThis could be the beginning
Of a lifetime romance
There's only one thing that's missing
It's time that we took the chanceSo why not tonight?
We've waited so long
Something this right
How could it be wrong?Girl, I know you can take me
Where I've never been
And the fire's burning bright
The time is just right
Why not tonight?Girl, there's no better feeling
That two lovers can share
I can't wait to show you
Just how much I careI can tell when you touch me
That I'm getting through
And I know that you want me
As much as I want youSo why not tonight?
We've waited so long
Something this right
How could it be wrong?Girl, I know you can take me
Where I've never been
And the fire's burning bright
The time is just right
Why not tonight?So why not tonight?
We've waited so long
Something this right
How could it be wrong?Girl, I know you can take me
Where I've never been
And the fire's burning bright
The time is just right
Why not tonight?
