

Some People Say

David Usher

Still the snow keeps falling
Till we can't keep out the cold
But they don't know
That my back was broken there
I'm so numb i can hardly move
You don't know
And so you give love too easily some people say
And i dreamt i was flying
And i left you so far below

Where i can't see
When the world is crumbling
It's so hard just to watch you bleed
But you can't see
And so we give love too easily some people say
And my back was broken
I'm so cold I can hardly breathe
You can't see
Don't give up
