Let You Go

The Pierces

Passion can be as quiet as a whisper
In your head, pain can be so silent
You won't even know it's thereIf rage could be so soft
I might stay here with you
If you could see my heart
It might turn your eyes to blueBut I've gotta let you go
It's harder to learn than
It is to know
I wanna watch you flyIt's easier to hurt
Than to say goodbye
It's easier to hurt
Than to say goodbyeGod is as good as He is kind
As He is just, He knows just how I feel
Ashes to ashes, dust to dustBut I want a bigger cup
This one won't hold enough
A love and painted heartache
And other fancy stuffBut I've gotta let you go
It's harder to learn than
It is to know
I wanna watch you flyIt's easier to hurt
Than to say goodbye
It's easier to hurt
Than to say goodbyeIt's gonna hurt
When I say goodbye
