Time passes quickly when your feet are stuck and the pavements almost dry and you can hardly breathe through the gravity so you scream whereâ€™d you go serendipity

Frightened straight to the core and though all of its been said before (ohhh oh oh) your worries lie between here and 64. In this moment you realize (realize) the future passed before our eyes. So you buckle up and wish for 25

Time passes quickly when your feet are stuck and the pavements almost dry and you can hardly breathe through
the gravity so you scream whereâ€™d you go serendipity

You canâ€™t find your loosing mind, so you wish for a better time, I know itâ€™s scary to move on but youâ€™ll be
