

Mediocre at Best

Sorority Noise

Nobody likes me
That's what I tell myself
I live alone in my own hell
I want to be the person you want me to be
That I know that I'll never be Nobody likes me
I hear it every day
I talk to you to remind myself again
I feel at home here (I feel at home here)
Cause I'm alone here. (cause I'm alone here) Nobody likes me
And that's all I hear
I spent a lot of time last year
Learning that I don't like me too
