

You Wouldn't Know

Hellyeah

You couldn't be, you couldn't be me even if you wanted to
Everything I've been through, you wouldn't know
Live your life, soaking up all my sunshine
And smile your whole life, I wouldn't know
18 wheels are rolling, 18 wheels are crushing me down
Running me down
Cars are crashing, cars are crashing all around me
Running me down
All my days are numbered
All my days are gray
All my skies are covered
All my ends are frayed
You couldn't be, you couldn't be me even if you wanted to
Everything I've been through, you wouldn't know
Live your life, soaking up all my sunshine
And smile your whole life, I wouldn't know
Lightnings crashin
Thunders rolling all around me, bringing me down
Stars are falling, fires lighting all around me
Burning me down
All my days are numbered
All my days are gray
All my skies are covered
All my ends are frayed
You couldn't be, you couldn't be me even if you wanted to
Everything I've been through, you wouldn't know
Live your life, soaking up all my sunshine
And smile your whole life, I wouldn't know
Feels like I'm falling down
Inside a fever rising
Buried my life deep in the ground
Left my existence lying, so let's go
You couldn't be, you couldn't be me even if you wanted to
Everything I've been through, you wouldn't know
Live your life, soaking up all my sunshine
And smile your whole life
You couldn't be, you couldn't be me even if you wanted to
Everything I've been through, you wouldn't know
