

Friends or Lovers

Marisa

Are we friends?
Are we lovers?
Let's not look back on the things
That don't sit well inside

Can we struggle some more
My life doesn't quite yet, resemble the war
On the other hand, it might be destroying me inside

Am I empty?
Or just overflown?
Maybe tomorrow this problem will disappear
Do you think of me often?
I sit around wondering where you have been

I don't think you understand me at all
I don't think you understand me at all
I don't think you understand me at all

At all...

Do you love?
Or not feel a thing?
How did we travel so far
From naive things we dream
Could you steal some more time?
Or maybe just drop me along with the dime
With the drop of the dime
Why do I even try?

Ooohhh...

Are we friends?
Are we lovers?
Let's not look back on the things
That don't sit well inside.
