

Into the Arms of Morpheus

Orange Goblin

Fire up the engines, set course to water fading sun and endless journey has begun extermination, the age of anthropoid is done and age of slumber has begun. The arms of Morpheus sets me free Drifting into eternal sleep
Remember nights of insomnia
I slip away to euphoria
Praise the Valium Goodbye horizon Take me to where I wanna be Take me beyond the wall of sleep.
Lord don't deny me
Come, come the storm behind my eyes
Oh lord, don't fail to hypnotize The arms of Morpheus sets me free
Drifting into eternal sleep
Remember nights of insomnia
I slip away to euphoria
Praise the Valium A numbness coursing through my veins
I hear the planet's call my name
.....?
