

Seeds

Alphaville

Little darling
On the factory floor
Sirens are wailing
They are calling you like lovers
They always want more
Department 27
Deep down below
You are piecing together
The seeds of the world
Ashen roses
Growing darkness
Starving children
Someday you stand up and dance
Glittering sunlight
Keep on shining
And put them together
The seeds of the world
Binding all the flowers of the world
Start bursting into millions of colors
Unfold all the flags of the nations
Kiss me again, let the battle start
Little darling
What have you done?
Hearts are breaking
Live without ending
Numberless men
Never relaxing
I have to see it all
Fire, desert, cold and arid
And all in a flash
Binding all the flowers of the world
Start bursting into millions of colors
Unfold all the flags of the nations
Kiss me again, let the battle start
