

Born to Lose

Total Chaos

[Originally by Johnny Thunders]

Well that's the way it goes

This city so cold

And I'm so cold

That's what I know

Born to lose

I said hey - born to lose

I said hey - born to lose

Oh baby I'm born to lose

I have nothing to do

I have nothing to say

Only one thing that I want

Living in the jungle

It ain't so hard

Living in the city

It'll eat out your heart
