Smile

M People

A glance back at the time I spent with you
I know you feel the same way tooA kiss to wipe away the tears
Can't keep on pushin' back the years
We gave up this thing long ago
Just like the stream forever flowsThis ain't devotion and it's not defeat
I'm trapped in a kitchen can't stand the heat
Like tears falling from a wounded sky
Let's leave it here, it's time to say goodbyeYou're not the man who used to make me smile, oh no

I guess I should be movin' on
You're not the man who used to make me smile, oh no
I guess I should be feelin' strongWould it make you happy if I said I cared for you? Oh no
Spread my warmth around you in the cold night airWalk with me up to the edge

Looking over at our life ahead

I may seem a fool to you

In everything I say or doBut I know this is our fate

I think we're past the sell-by date

The encores through, the show at an end

Consign me to history but stay my friendStay my friendYou're not the man who used to make me smile, oh no I guess I should be movin' on

You're not the man who used to make me smile, oh no I guess I should be feelin' strong
