Interstellar Riot

The Rambling Wheels

Bullet stars, bullet stars are heading to their sky
Intergalactic war we've declared
We're burning the human race, we show their fate
Now they are pushed into the pastWith our silver ships we are approaching
Landing on survivors, silly human race
We're running over life, we cast our hate
Now they are part of the pastWe're coming from outer space
Our new dark reign is shining
Coming from outer space
The celestial race replaces the sun
We replace the sun
Bullet stars, bullet stars are falling from above
Intergalactic war has been declared
They're burning the human race, they show our fate
Now we are pushed into the pastSilver ships, silver ships, they are approaching
Landing on survivors, silly human race
They're running over life, they cast their hate
Now we are part of the pastComing from outer space
A new dark reign is shining
Coming from outer space
The celestial race replaces the sunPassing by the eternal clouds of stars
They came to purify
Passing by the eternal clouds of stars
We came to purify
Passing by the eternal clouds of stars
We came to purify
We have sealed their fate
