I Don't Know How He Did It

Doug Anderson

VERSE 1
He left a Heavenly throne
To call the earth His new home
He walked and talked among men
And brought His kingdom to themA little fish and some bread
And then five thousand were fed
He healed the blind and the lame
And raised the dead from the graveYes their lives were changed in minutes
As so many people witnessed
And I don't know how He did it
But I'm so thankful He didCHORUS
And though the world couldn't see
Here was their Savior and King
It's so amazing to me just how much Jesus loves usVERSE 2
He prayed in Gethsemane
Lord let this cup pass from me
Convicted, tried and accused
His body beaten and bruisedHe took that cross up the hill
Salvation's plan to fulfill
And as the sun disappeared
Ten thousand angels stood nearas He hung there and committed to His Father's hands His spirit
And I don't know how He did it
But I'm so thankful He didREPEAT CHORUSVERSE 3
Then early on the third day
He rose with power to save
And through His blood I'm set free
I'm pardoned, cleansed and redeemedFor my guilt and shame were lifted
By a grace that knew no limit
And I don't know how He did it
But I'm so thankful He di
