No Man No Cry

Sugababes

No man, no cry
No man, no cryI've had enough of all your lies and all your silly games
I'm running out can't you see what you're doing?
I never ever thought that you'd treat me so cruel
But you proved me wrong and now you know I'm just a foolDon't keep me guessing, always stressing all the time
You want to play this game, true love is hard to find
And if I walk there won't be no more coming back
In fact you'll be missing this, wish you should be kissing this Baby, check my rhymeNo man, no cry
No man, that's alright
No we won't be played
Listen all you ladies
'Cuz the babes are taking over this placeNo man, no cry
No man telling me lies
No we won't be played
We're here to tell you fellas
That the babes are taking over your placeI'm feeling angry by the way that you treat me lately
Do you see me as some fool, remember what I'm worth boy
No disrespecting me, upsetting me with talk
Or this lady's gonna walkAnd while I'm thinking baby, tell me what did you do
Just interrupt good times that should have been with my crew
I bring you down when I tell your boys
I won't be sitting here now waiting for your callI ain't some little girl, baby you know the score
Don't want to feel like I'm not the only one
Baby you did me wrong, I'm not your bitch
Don't trip, I'm moving onNo man, no cry
No man, pass on by
No we won't be played
Listen all you ladies
'Cuz the babes are taking over this placeNo man, no cry
No man telling me lies
No we won't be played
We're here to tell you fellas
That the babes are taking over your placeI'm moving on
I said, I'm moving on, oh yeah
I'm moving on, no, no
I'm moving on
I'm moving on

Said, I'm moving on, yeahNo man, no cry
No man, that's alright
No we won't be played
Listen all you ladies
'Cuz the babes are taking over this placeNo man, no cry
No man telling me lies
No we won't be played
We're here to tell you fellas
That the babes are taking over your placeNo man, no cry
No man, that's alright
No we won't be played
Be played no moreNo man, no cry
No man telling me lies
No we won't be playedOh, yeah
Ooh, oh
Oh yeah, no cry
