Avalanche

Still Remains

Wishing someone would break my legs
A burden too heavy to bare
I've tasted the lips of the Ancients
and witnessed the fall of hope.
Hope.Like saviors to the planet we have risen
taking out anyone in our path Infiltrate the heart of the enemy as they suck the stream of life From the decapitation of Jenova
to the drowning of Aeris Don't come even a little bit closer or I'll show you what this ultimate weapon
Is capable of.Infecting, Infecting our soldiers Petty experiments solely to find the strongest breed of chaos to further corrupt our world.
Failed.From the decapitation of Jenova
to the drowning of Aeris
Don't come even a little bit closer
or I'll show you what this ultimate weapon
is capable of.Wishing someone would break my legs
A burden too heavy to bare
and witnessed the fall of hope.
Hope.
