Bad Boy

Keshia Chante

Ring, ring, ring, it's the same thing
Always call me up, yo girl how u been?
Now I can't breathe, you're smotherin' me
With lovey dovey stuff, that I don't needPlease, please, please won't you tell me
What happened to that cat that you used to be Rollin in the hood up to no good
Dutty, dutty, duh, misunderstoodBack, back, back up, reverse, reverse
'Cause I liked you the way you were
I said, "Back, back, back up, reverse, reverse"
'Cause I'm just tryna find outWhat happened to the boy you used to be
I wish you would come back, come back to me
What happened to the boy I used to know
'Cause he don't come around here no moreWhat happened to the boy you used to be
Can't somebody tell me, tell me please
What happened to the boy I used to know
Won't somebody tell me please
Won't you tell me where'd my bad boy go
(Where'd my bad boy go)Bling, bling, I don't see no ring
So why you got's to go and change everything
You had it going on but now you so gone
Bringing me flowers, singing a songWhy, why, why, do you have to try to be someone else
Livin' a lie best check you're head
You're loosin' your edge
Bring back the thug or this thing is deadWhat happened to the boy you used to be
I wish you would come back, come back to me
What happened to the boy I used to know
'Cause he don't come around here no moreWhat happened to the boy you used to be
Can't somebody tell me, tell me please
What happened to the boy I used to know
Won't somebody tell me please
Won't you tell me where'd my bad boy go
(Where'd my bad boy go)
