Hard to Breathe

Irving

Made me change my plan, walk in a different space
Loving you is all I seem to think about
And will you let me go if I turn around and walk the other way
Or would you haunt my heart for the rest of my life?
I don't wanna be caught up in you and
I don't wanna have to see your face in every other woman
It gets hard to breathe
Only when I'm next to you, I guess I got caught up in you
I gotta break these chains
It's so hard to sleep
I feel your love is closing in forcing me to play my hand
And I don't wanna win
Loosing sleep for days, the distraction that you make
Keeping me from moving on, piecing back my life
Would it be this way if I had never fell in love with you?
I think it'd be quite alright if I never knew your name
I don't wanna be caught up in you
And I don't wanna be seeing your face in every other woman
It gets hard to breathe
Only when I'm next to you, I guess I got caught up in you
I gotta break these chains
It's so hard to sleep
I feel your love is closing in forcing me to play my hand
And I don't wanna win
Moving's just too much
Think I'm giving up till I don't really let it down
It gets hard to breathe
Only when I'm next to you, I guess I got caught up in you
I gotta break these chains
It's so hard to sleep
I feel your love is closing in, feel your love closing in on me
It gets hard to breathe
It's so hard to sleep
I'm up late at night 'cause I thought I saw you in my dreams
Thought I saw you in my dreams
