The Dark One

Darkseed

Darkness - In every line and word i'm singing
Demons - Haunting me whenever I thinkNightfall - A dying man
Nightfall - Yes i am
Beasts inside me roar
The dark one is my nameAllright, here's the dark one speaking
I introduce my mental world to youBreaking living nothingness
That's what I will do - be careful!My words are in your hands
And they measure good and bad
Maybe they attract you
But you should read between the linesI rule the night, it's my home, I welcome you
Die Nacht ist mein, und ich lad dich herzlich ein
I hunt the light, for more than one decade
'Cause i am the dark one, the dark one I amSelfhood - I hate you
Dullness - and you too
I decry you all
For dark one is my nameHey you, do you hear my words
I hope you do, and feel it tooBlaming mortal selfishness
That's what I will do - I mean it!This is my other side
I'm not only a dark one,
As I have a pulsing heart
For all who care
