Rain

Joey Diamond

Rain, rain
You always have perfect timing
Just when I'm feeling so lonely
Without someone's arm to hold
It's so coldRain, rain
The beat of your drops keep me thinking
It almost seems like the clouds morning
Feeling neglected by love, love, love
Woah, oh, ohI understand when they may feel that way
I can't pretend everything's okay
I don't wanna be the man who's patiently waiting
This feeling ain't fadingAnd so I say,
Rain, rain, ah, go away
Come back another day
I don't wanna feel the pain
So I say,
Rain, rain, ah, go away
You fill my skies with gray
Bring back my sunny day
Sunny day
