

You Are Loved

Ellie Holcomb

Some days you're tired of trying to measure up
You see a girl who's not enough
And you look in the mirror Some nights all you wanna do is hide
Cause every time you look inside
You're face to face with failure But you are loved oh
Not because of what you've done no
Even when your heart has run the other way
Nothing's gonna change his love
And you are wanted
Not because you are perfect
I know that you don't think your worth that kind of grace
Look into his face you'll know that you are loved oh...
You've searched for something that will stir your soul
That'll make you feel less alone
But nothing ever saves you
While he knew before you ever took a breath
There'd be days where you'd forget
How beautiful he made you But you are loved oh
Not because of what you've done no
Even when your heart has run the other way
Nothing's gonna change his love
And you are wanted
Not because you are perfect
I know that you don't think your worth that kind of grace
Look into his face you'll know
That Jesus He chose you
He sees you
He knows you oh ...
You are covered forever
Beloved daughter You are loved oh
Not because of what you've done
Even when your heart has run the other way
Nothing's gonna change his love
And you are wanted
Not because you are perfect
I know that you don't think your worth that kind of grace
Look into his face you'll know that
You are loved oh...
Look into his face you'll see that

Look into his face you'll know oh
That you are loved oh
That you are loved oh
Look into his face you'll see that
You are loved
