Triangle

Nadia Ali

Oh, the gist of it all is the first day of fall Is the day when my ship will set sail The best of all friends will say good-bye again There's still time for one last glass of ale We'll sail away proudly, our backs to the wall On a south wind and lots of good cheer And when we've looked over the white cliffs of Dover We'll be in Bahama next year From Bermuda on down the Triangle around us Will teach us a lesson or two There's many a mate who unevenly stated The course he had charted was true "Don't worry 'bout me," he said "Go down below Give a certified sailor a turn Just sip on your rum or I'll give you my thumb and say Son you got something t' learn" It's a mighty hard way to come down and a mighty fine way to be found So hand me my grip from an old sailing ship Put the kiss of the dawn on my lips with some luck tonight I might have her at my fingertips Oh, the best of all things is the first day of spring When when the water runs heavy and fast The mermaids have all gone to Davy Jones' Ball And it seems their first trip was their last They had so much fun, they don't wish to return To the beach where they lay all day long They'd rather stay under and boy it's no wonder When all the rock lobsters roll on

It's a mighty fine way to be found
Triangle Triangle, oh see my ship dangle
We're bound for Bahama my friend
Like lovers like danger, like babies like mangers
But that's where my storybook ends
Like soldiers of fortune, believers in God
And all kings without crosses to bear
All sweepers and cleaners with no misdemeanors
Should try the triangle out there
It's a mighty hard way to come down

And a mighty fine way to be found So hand me my grip from an old sailing ship Put the kiss of dawn on my lips with some luck tonight I might have her at my fingertips When she took her last tumble, the sea bottom rumbled There was no confusion or blame The captain said, "Men we must answer again to the sea so ye may not complain" And as they lay sleeping down there in the deep With their faces turned up to the stars A tuna fish turned to a mermaid in bed and said "There goes another sandbar" It's a mighty hard way to come down And a mighty fine way to be found So hand me my grip from an old sailing ship Put the kiss of the dawn on my lips With some luck tonight I might have her at my fingertips
