

Where Do I Go to Start All Over

Wade Hayes

I drove around last night and tried with all my might
To leave the past behind but you stayed on my mind
 So I stopped for a drink, I never stopped to think
 That it wouldn't work, it just made it worse
 So I came on back home, I hadn't changed a thing
And sat here all alone, missing you and wondering Where do I go to start all over
 When there's no place to hide from your memory
 Where do I go to start all over
 When in your arms is where I won't be I'd take some things and leave
 If the change of scenery would do me any good, like I know it should
 And I'd still be missing you, what good's a different view
 To a broken heart, we'd still be apart
 Someday I'll find an answer to this mystery
But tonight the same old question just keeps on haunting me Where do I go to start all over
 When there's no place to hide from your memory
 Where do I go to start all over
 When in your arms is where I won't be
