

Deep Blue Sea

John Lee Hooker

Everywhere I turn it's got a hold on me
Between the devil and the deep blue sea
    Everywhere I run it won't let me be
Caught between the devil and the deep blue sea
    Between the devil and the deep blue sea
Can somebody, somebody, somebody help me please
    Between the thunder and the driving rain
    Could I ever be, be the same again
Caught between the devil, yeah, and the deep blue sea
    Holding on, waiting for some good luck to come
        Come my way, set me free
    It's that old boy himself and he always knew
    Sooner or later if you don't say what's true
        You'll end in chains and you'll always be Caught between the devil, yeah, and the deep blue sea, yeah
    Caught between the devil and the deep blue sea
    Caught between the devil and the deep blue sea
