Red Cab to Manhattan

Stephen Bishop

I know you
You're the one I always turn to
When I'm down
You were made for meA tender heartbeat away
When I feel this close
I don't know what to sayMe and my car broke downSo I'm gonna take a Red Cab to Manhattan
I'll be heading out my door
Got some friends who wanna see me
Don't know what I'm living for
Gonna take a Red Cab to Manhattan"Insincere", you say
Well, I'm right here beside you
And I'm a million miles awayI'm listening to the O'Jay sing
Don't lose your heart
Don't lose your heart
Till you're sure that she's the oneMe and my car broke downSo I'm gonna take a Red Cab to Manhattan
See, 'It's a wonderful life'
Take Jimmy Stewart out to dinner
And buy some postcards for his wife
Gonna take a Red Cab to ManhattanOh, it's too late to make fun of it
Oh, oh, he's given you the best of itSo I'm gonna take a Red Cab to Manhattan
I'll be heading out my door
Got some friends who wanna see me
Don't know what I'm living for
Gonna take a Red Cab to ManhattanRed Cab to Manhattan
I'll be heading out my door
Got some friends who wanna see me
Don't know what I'm living for
Gonna take a Red Cab to ManhattanRed Cab, Red Cab
Red Cab, Red Cab, Red Cab
Red Cab to ManhattanStewart out to dinner
Buy some postcards for his wife
Watch, 'A wonderful life'
Such a wonderful lifeWonderful, wonderful, wonderful, wonderful
Wonderful, wonderful, wonderful, wonderful
Wonderful, wonderful, wonderful, wonderful life

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/