Mystery

Jonah33

Whats it gonna take
For the dead to wake in me?
What does it require
To understand this fire inside?I want to comprehend
Where you start and where I end
If I could only magnify
If I could only magnifyThe mystery behind you is consuming me
And I call conspiracy
You made yourself an endless maze of love
So Id never give upDont want to leave this mystery
Ill never leave this mysterySo the question goes
Will I ever fully know
The significance
Of the promises Im toldAnd with this light inside
Is the dark afraid of me
Will the time come that I know?
Will the time come that I know?The mystery behind you is consuming me
And I call conspiracy
You made yourself an endless maze of love
So Id never give upDont want to leave this mystery
Ill never leave this mysteryIf you ever came to me
To give me anything, anything at all
Your wisdoms what I need
For I am just a fiend that craves your mysteryThe mystery behind you is consuming me
And I call conspiracy
You made yourself an endless maze of love
So Id never give upDont want to leave this mystery
Dont want to leave this mysteryIll never leave this mystery
Dont want to leave this mystery
