

I Know (feat. WurlD)

B.o.B

I know, I know, I know
You have been waitin'
I know, I know, I know
I know what you've been waiting for
You think I'll make you a break-up song
Do you really think you deserve it?
And I know you've been longin' for it
You think I'll make you a break-up...
I know how you want this to go
I know how you want me to flow
You want me to even the score
You want me to upload a post
You want me to go back and forth with the shit I did with a random lil' ho
You want me to...hm but that would be doin' the most
They want to see a nigga deep in his feelings 'cause that's where they usually go
New bitches always got somewhere to go but that's what the Uber is for Old bitches always be down for a setup but that's what my shooters is for Bitches be so quick to side with a bitch like they never heard rumors before
I hate emotions, I ain't good with 'em
I only fuck with trouble, put that wood in 'em
I ain't good for 'em, ain't no sugarcoatin' shit, ain't no should of, could of, would of in 'em
From the hood but not a hoodlum
Lines got [?] suss in 'em
Bitches fall for anything you tell 'em, better get the pillow for some cushionin'
Light the kush again
I know, I know, I know
You have been waitin'
I know, I know, I know
I know what you've been waiting for
You think I'll make you a break-up song
Do you really think you deserve it?
And I know you've been longin' for it
You think I'll make you a break-up...
I know, I know, you know
I know, you know, you don't-you don't deserve it
I know, I know, you know
And you know it
And you know it
This ain't a love song or a fight and break-up and make-up song

This ain't a grudge song, this a "who can you trust" song (yeah)
Or "why are they thinkin' in blood" song
This ain't a club song, "Fontainebleau Miami revolt" song
This a "only God can judge" song
"People care too much about who I fuck" song
"When you smokin' and discuss" songs
"That's something that should discuss" songs
This a "hush, you blowin' my bust" song
"Power usually corrupt" song (yeah)
"Two step in the ever-bud" song
This a "now look at me in disgust" song
"Control yourself, take what you need but I ain't done" song
A palm for nurses, they had their scrubs on
"Things got too complicated for us" song
Shit, we should've left it in the crush zone
Yeah, but I couldn't leave well enough alone
Yeah, I couldn't leave well enough alone
Couldn't leave well enough alone
Now I'm singin' this fuckin' song
I know, I know, I know
You have been waitin'
I know, I know, I know
I know what you've been waiting for
You think I'll make you a break-up song
Do you really think you deserve it?
And I know you've been longin' for it
You think I'll make you a break-up...
I know, I know, you know
I know, you know, you don't-you don't deserve it
I know, I know, you know
And you know it
And you know it
